Students: At the end of the quarter there will be an opportunity to evaluate this course. Course evaluations will take around 10 minutes. Results are anonymous and are not shared with the instructor or TAs until after final grades are submitted. These evaluations are used to assess the classroom community, faculty, TAs and overall class. They are reviewed regularly as part of faculty performance reviews, promotions, and raises. Faculty and TAs will read these evaluations each quarter to incorporate your feedback the next time this course is taught. Faculty would like to know what teaching strategies are successful. Your input is extremely valuable to the improvement of courses and the department.
